CHANGES IN THE CONSTITUTION OF UKRAINE FROM 2014.

Summary

The author shows the changes in the Constitution of Ukraine, their essence. Ukraine is a young country that has so far had three constitutional amendments. All these changes have left an indelible mark in the political life of Ukraine, and in the great significance of the impact on the lives of Ukrainian citizens. The author deals in detail recent changes in the Ukrainian constitution, which wants to change politic system of Ukraine, so that would be returned from a semi-presidential system into a parliamentary system. Also, special attention is given to the institution of the referendum, which is in last time very often misused.
